NANCY RECKO APPOINTED DEPUTY REGIONAL ATTORNEY IN NLRB'S CLEVELAND, OH REGIONAL OFFICE

General Counsel Ronald Meisburg of the National Labor Relations Board announced the appointment of career attorney Nancy Recko as Deputy Regional Attorney in the Agency's Cleveland, OH Regional Office (Region 8). The Cleveland Regional Office services the state of Ohio north of Columbus, including Toledo, Akron and Cleveland.

In her new position, Ms. Recko will assist Regional Director Frederick Calatrello in the enforcement and administration of the National Labor Relations Act in Region 8. The NLRB conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation, and investigates and remedies unfair labor practices.

Commenting on the appointment, General Counsel Ronald Meisburg stated:

Nancy Recko has compiled an exemplary record in her over 26 years of service as an attorney with the NLRB. Her strong legal skills, professionalism and dedication will continue to serve the Agency well in her new capacity.

A native of the Cleveland area, Ms. Recko received a B.A. degree in mass media communications from Cleveland State University. In 1978, she earned a J.D. degree from Cleveland Marshall College of Law, Cleveland State University. She is a member of the Ohio bar. Ms. Recko joined the NLRB as a field attorney in the Cleveland Regional Office in 1979. In 2004, Ms. Recko received a promotion to the position of supervisory field attorney.
